2020 K-1 SCHEDULE Supplemental Information

United States Oil Fund, LP (USO)

1. Under Temporary Treasury Regulations Section 1.469-1T(e)(6), none of the distributive share items reported to you on the Schedule K-1 are considered to be derived from a passive activity.
2. Information for Non-California/Non-Resident taxpayers: The partnership has derived income from the trading of qualified securities for its own account and does not generate trade or business income. Consequently, the Partnership has determined that it is an Investment Partnership for purposes of California Revenue and Tax Code Section 17955 and, thus, none of the Partnership's income has been attributed to California sources. The income, gain, loss and expense generated by the Partnership will be passed through to unitholders and reported on their state income tax return, if any, please consult your tax advisor regarding your investment in the partnership and your state tax filing requirements. No state Schedule K-1s or K-1 equivalents have been generated for you in your K-1 package as the income, gain, loss and expense for states purposes will not differ from your federal Schedule K-1.
3. If some or all of your units are lent by your broker or other agent to a third party - for example, for use by the third party in covering a short sale - you may be considered as having made a taxable disposition of the loaned units, in which case:
 - You will recognize taxable gain or loss to the same extent as if you had sold the units for cash;
 - Any of the fund's income, gain, loss or deduction allocable to those units during the period of the loan will not be reportable by you for tax purposes; and
 - Any payments you receive with respect to the units during the period of the loan will be fully taxable, most likely as ordinary income.

Unitholders desiring to avoid these and other possible consequences of a deemed disposition of their units should consider modifying any applicable brokerage account agreements to prohibit the lending of their units.

4. 97.01% of the amount of interest and dividend income included on your Schedule K-1 is from U.S. Government obligations
5. For tax years beginning after 2012, new Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") Section 1411 imposes a 3.8% surtax on certain investment income of individuals and of trusts and estates. Your share of income reported on this Schedule K-1 and any gain on the sale of Partnership units may be subject to this surtax. The Partnership encourages you to consult your tax advisor concerning the impact of IRC Section 1411 to you.
6. The Partnership does not qualify as effectively connected with a trade or business within the United States. The Partnership is engaged in trading in securities or commodities, generating investment income, and none of the distributive share items reported to you on the Schedule K-1 are considered to be qualified publicly traded partnership income under Section 199A.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The information in the enclosed tax package is provided by the Partnership to assist you in preparing your personal tax return. The information reflects the application of the various assumptions and conventions, as disclosed by the Partnership to you in various SEC filings and other offering documents. It is anticipated that the Partnership may provide disclosure of certain of these assumptions and conventions in the preparation of the Partnership return as warranted to the Internal Revenue Service and/or other taxing authorities. We suggest that you refer to the appropriate federal and state income tax laws, instructions, and SEC filings and other offering documents, and that you consult your tax advisor with any questions. You should discuss with your tax advisor whether the treatment of any items in the enclosed tax package may subject you and/or your tax advisor to a penalty by a taxing authority and the need to adequately disclose any items in order to avoid such penalty.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: I didn't receive any cash distributions on my units/shares. Why are there reportable items on my Schedule K-1 that are subject to tax?

A: No U.S. federal income taxes are paid by the Funds. Instead, each Fund files an annual information return and each unitholder is required to report on its U.S. federal income tax return its allocable share of the income, gain, loss and deduction of the respective fund(s) that it has invested in. The General Partner has not made and does not intend to make any distributions; this means unitholders are required to report their allocable share of income whether the income is distributed or not.

Q: Why do I receive a Schedule K-1 rather than a Form 1099?

A: Since the Funds are treated as partnerships for U.S. Income Tax purposes, the information is required to be reported on a Schedule K-1 instead of a Form 1099.

Q: Why didn't I receive my Schedule K-1 by January 31, which is the date required for distribution of Forms 1099?

A: The Funds strive to provide the Schedule K-1 information as early as possible, typically by the second week of March. The Funds must obtain information regarding ownership interests bought and sold during the year from brokers and nominees. Much of this information is not provided to the Funds until late January. This information is reviewed in printing and mailing during March. In general, the Funds are required to provide this information by March 15th, or September 15th if an extension is requested.

Q: Why doesn't my financial advisor/accountant/broker receive this information for my account?

A: This information is only sent to the address associated with the account in which the units of the Funds are held. Currently, it is the obligation of the Funds to provide the information directly to the unitholder. The Funds are not able to accommodate any special or duplicate mailing requests.

Q: If I purchased fund shares, what is my tax reporting responsibility for this investment?

A: Please consult a tax professional. Generally, any income, capital gain/loss, expense and other items reported to you on the Schedule K-1 must be included in your tax return.

Q: If I sold fund shares, what is my tax reporting responsibility for this transaction?

A: Please consult a tax professional. Generally your gain/loss on the sale of units must be included in your tax return. The Sales Schedule reflects sales of your units and includes related adjustments to your tax basis.

Q: How is my tax basis determined for computing gain or loss?

A: Your tax basis is generally the original amount paid for the partnership units adjusted as follows:

- Increased by the allocable share of income and gain reported to you on the Schedule K-1
- Reduced by the allocable share of expense and loss reported to you on the Schedule K-1

Again, you should consult a tax professional.

Q: Is any of the allocated income Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) to tax-exempt investors?

A: Not under current federal income tax laws.

If you disposed of your partnership interest during 2020, this Sales Schedule is provided to assist you in the calculation of your gain or loss as a result of your disposition. IRS Revenue Ruling 84-53 provides that a partner has a single unified basis in their partnership interest if you acquired your partnership interest through various purchases, each row on the schedule below includes a prorated amount of each acquisition reflecting the unified basis of the disposed partnership interest. The partnership has provided this schedule solely as a courtesy. Basis information is not reported to the Internal Revenue Service by the partnership. Each partner must make their own determination of the amount of basis to be associated with the partnership interest that was sold during the year. Please consult your tax advisor to obtain advice on how this determination should be made. If you notified the partnership that you used an alternative basis disposition method, the schedule below will generally yield a result that is not consistent with IRS Revenue Ruling 84-53.
